

BLACKTOWN CITY ELDER ABUSE PREVENTION COLLABORATIVE

Building Blacktown City's capacity to identify and respond to elder abuse, raise awareness to prevent abuse and empower victims.

LOCAL CONTACTS

9839 6287	Blacktown City Elder Abuse Prevention Collaborative
1800 600 681	Western Sydney Local Health District (WSLHD) Chronic & Complex Services
9881 8787	Western Sydney Local Health District (WSLHD) Integrated Violence Prevention and Response Service
9677 1962	WASH House
4732 2318	West Connect Domestic Violence Services
9832 1356	Sydney West Aboriginal Health Service
9831 2070	Blacktown Women's and Girls' Health Centre
9671 9199	Blacktown Police Station
8805 8399	Mount DrUITT Police Station
9838 2199	Riverstone Police Station

STATE CONTACTS

131 444	Police Assistance Line
1800 424 079	Seniors Rights Service
1300 364 277	Let's Talk Elder Support and Mediation Service
1800 424 017	NSW Rape Crisis
1800 656 463	Domestic Violence Line
131 450	Phone Interpreting - TIS National
1800 200 422	My Aged Care (assessment for services)
1800 422 737	Carer Gateway
1800 100 500	National Dementia Helpline
000	In an emergency or if someone is in danger

MY WELLBEING CHECKLIST

1800 628 221

Mon-Fri 9am-5pm
NSW Ageing and Disability Abuse Helpline

- I know how much money I have in my bank account
- I have the freedom to spend my money
- I have the freedom to see family and friends when I want
- I attend social activities
- I receive medical attention when I need it, and have a say about my healthcare plan and treatment
- My personal care needs (showering; personal hygiene etc.) are taken care of
- I am treated respectfully by my family and friends
- I feel safe at home

Think about your responses. If you have any concerns about your situation, you may wish to talk to someone you trust such as a family member, friend, doctor, religious leader, or you can call the NSW Ageing and Disability Abuse Helpline.

Acknowledgement: adapted from the checklist produced by the Far North Coast Older Persons Wellbeing Collaborative and NSW Ageing and Disability Commission.

